Scope of the Position:

With supervision provided by a Principal Claim Auditor, the incumbent will perform prepayment audits of claim schedules of moderate complexity and difficulty for legality and sufficient provisions of law or contract for payment of funds from the State Treasury. Duties include, but are not limited to the following:

Duties and Responsibilities:

Candidates must perform the following essential functions with or without reasonable accommodations

- Perform prepayment audits of the more complex claim schedules for legality, compliance with contracts and/or sufficient provisions of law to allow payment from State Treasury funds.
- Research complex audit claims, and prepare summary of rules, regulations, statutes or contracts supporting approval or denial.
- When sufficient provisions of law do not exist to support payment of claims, prepare correspondence explaining deficiencies to the state department or local government. Identify areas of difficulty with contracts, laws, rules, legal opinions, and/or statutes and prepare written recommendations for considerations by an Assistant or Principal Claim Auditor.
- Prepare written summaries of new or amended contracts, statutes, or regulations governing payment of claims.
- Prepare written documentation of new/revised audit procedures for consideration by an Assistant/Principal Claim Auditor.
- Contact state departments and/or local government agencies to resolve issues related to complex claims. Properly file documents and records in accordance with the established filing protocol.
